

South Santa Rosa
Resource Center

Serving our neighbors in need.

MISSION STATEMENT

The South Santa Rosa Resource Center is a community collaboration of trained, dedicated, compassionate advocates providing appropriate resource and referral assistance to people in need.

"In the time we have it is surely our duty to do all the good we can to all the people we can in all the ways we can."

~William Barclay

All services are made available through the South Santa Rosa Resource Center and the generosity of their supporters and volunteers. If you are interested in volunteering or making a donation, please contact:

South Santa Rosa Resource Center

At the South Santa Rosa Resource Center, we offer a variety of assistance for men, women and children in need.

For individuals and families facing the crisis of homelessness, simply sorting through multiple needs and developing a plan to address those needs can be overwhelming. SSRRC serves as a central point of information and referral to help provide guidance through this difficult time.

Services Offered at the SSRRC

- One-on-one confidential assistance to determine clients needs
- Assistance in completing applications for services, i.e. food stamps, social security, identification, etc.
- Referral to agencies for assistance, i.e. food and clothing banks, shelters, utilities, health care, etc.
- Mail Center
